Dear Mr. Miller:

Thank you for sending me recently the unclassified reports on the Sino-Soviet bloc. Such reports as these are extremely valuable and useful to me, not only in my own research but also in my teaching. I should be grateful if you would continue to send me whatever becomes available. If the declassification applies to maps of the Soviet Union and China, I would certainly welcome these also.

We have here a large and growing number of graduate students studying and specializing in the geography of the Communist countries. We work very closely with the Far Eastern and Russian Institute on campus. Thus, your assistance in helping us make that training more effective will serve an important cause.

Sincerely yours,
